DO'S AND DON'TS FOR PURCHASING CRAB FEAST TICKETS

FORMS OF PAYMENT: Cash, Money Orders, Cashier Checks, and PERSONAL CHECK – Black Ski Members Only	Don't request tickets and forget to include a self addressed stamped envelope. Make sure the envelope is large enough for the amount of tickets being purchased.
Do carefully add up the amount of tickets requesting by mail and submit that payment amount	Suggestion: Use forever stamps (if postage prices change in the interim of you receiving your tickets by mail no addition postage required)
Members - Do not send personal checks drawn on out of state banks – again processing time will slows down. (membership has to be verified and checks must clear bank before any tickets are mailed) no guarantee tickets will be available	Do mail request to designated address on flyer . Never send the request to the Black Ski P.O. Box requesting tickets.
Personal Checks are not accepted from Non- Black Ski Members	Do make sure your membership is paid up to date. Lapse membership is considered No membership if you are writing a personal check
After April 15 – do call before sending any money requesting tickets to be sure tickets are available.	Tickets can be obtained at the Black Ski General Body Meeting, on the 4th Tuesday of the month starting in February – June while tickets last.
Do not assume if you transfer money from another event to the crab feast that it will guarantee you a ticket.	Don't assume your trip director will pass on the information to me that any money left on your prior trip is for the purchase of crab feast tickets. It is your responsibility to notify the Crab Feast Chairperson of this transfer
